ROME, Nov. 4 (Associated Press).— Premier Mussolini sent to-day through the Associated Press the following message to the Italians in America:

"On the fourth anniversary of our victory it gives me pleasure to send a message of good wishes to all Italians living in North America. As the youths who returned victorious from the trenches bound themselves together like the fasces of the Roman victors, succeeding in giving the nation a rhythm of life worthy of the victory gained, so must you join in the name of Italy in ideal bonds expressing all your strength and making felt with adequate energy the virtues of the Italian people, even outside the boundaries of your country.

"Thus united, you will cooperate with greater alacrity not only in your own prosperity but in that of the noble nation extending you hospitality, of which you are not a negligible element of value. Italy rose from the victory of Vittorio Veneto greater and more august.
This renewed consciousness should make you proud to be Italians, make you exult everywhere the name of Italy.

"Viva Italy! Viva America!"
The fourth anniversary of Italy's victory over Austria was celebrated to-day.
King Victor Emmanuel, Premier Mussolini and his suite attended a solemn mass in the church of Santa Maria degli Angeli. They then visited the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

First Official Celebration.

It was the first time that the day of victory had been officially and publicly celebrated. When Mussolini arrived at the church he was greeted by the rector and high officials of state. When the King, in his gray-green field uniform, arrived with his aid, his car was stopped by Mussolini with a great gesture. Then, both reaching the inscription above the church door:

"The King, the Government and the people plausibly commemorate the Unknown Soldier and all the glorious dead, wishing for the mother country happiness in the future."

The Fascist leader then took the King to the place reserved for him within the church and took his own seat beside the members of the court and the Government.

From the church the King, the Premier, Gen. Diaz, Minister of War; Admiral Thaon di Revel, Minister of Marine, and others drove through the Via Nazionale to the monument of Victor Emmanuel I. The King and the officials mounted to the altar of the mother country, while the immense square below was black with a silent crowd. The scene was extremely picturesque and the moment tense with emotion.

The historic bell on the capital was the first to break the silence, then every other bell in Rome joined in until the air rang. As the King and Premier Mussolini knelt, the people also, perfect silence prevailed.

Immediately the ceremony was over the bronze gates before the monument were opened and thousands of people, widows, mothers wearing the decorations of their sons and maimed soldiers, thronged up the steps to pay homage to the fighting spirit of their race, covering the tomb of the Unknown Soldier under a profusion of flowers and gar-lands.

The Parliamentary Program.

The first bill to be presented by Premier Mussolini at the reopening of Parliament on November 16 will be the provisional financial budget, giving the Government money to carry on until July, 1923. The next measure will be for modification of the electoral law giving the Government freedom to hold general elections.

Signor de Vecchi, the Under Secretary of Penitents, has expressed the intention of presenting a bill modifying the pensions law to exclude deserters.

Premier Mussolini has addressed a circular to all Italian representatives abroad, exacting that none of them shall ever grant interviews or publish statements without previous authorization from the Government. He has ordered all diplomats now in Italy to return immediately to their posts, reminding them that their jobs are abroad and not in Rome.

To-day Count Sforza, the Italian Ambassador to Paris, is expected here for a conference with the Premier.

Three persons were seriously wounded during an attack on Fascist at Adria yesterday, the Messaggero states. The Fascist wrecked the Socialist club interior, but later turned it over to the authorities. Three persons were killed, the newspaper adds, during disturbances in Catania.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The tactics of the Fascist, which heretofore have overcome all obstacles with amazing swiftness, are reported to be striking a few snags. Conflict with the Soviet Government is feared as a result of a raid which dispatches to Paris say was made yesterday upon the Rome bureau of the Russian commercial delegation by seven Fascist from Imola. Rushing into the offices the Fascist dragged out an alien employee, posted him against a wall and shot him.

A dispatch from Chiasso, near the Italian frontier, to the Matin says that the Socialists in Italy have issued a manifesto to the country declaring they have nothing to fear from Fascism.

POTATO GROWING RECORD.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—What is claimed to be a world's record in potato growing is reported from Ilkerton. In the presence of a large number of people a farmer named P. Peel weighed potatoes totalling 324 pounds and six ounces, all of which was produced from one pound of seed.

FIFTH FLOOR

Special Selling of

Blankets and Comforters

A stock of blankets and comforters worth more than $30,000 at values which cannot be duplicated in the present market.
The blankets were purchased when raw wool was selling at about half its present cost. Many special values, three of which are presented here.

English Cambric Down Comforters $19.50—Figured cambric covers with plain borders to match the figured centers, the colors being rose or Copenhagen. A fine quality stemless down forms the fillings. Only a limited quantity are available.
Priced slightly more than bare importation cost.

SECOND FLOOR

Modish Three-Piece Suits $135

"The three-piece suit," according to our latest Paris report, "is the costume most seen at present." Lord & Taylor offers a group of excellent three-piece suits at $135: a bloused model, two box coat models. Tailored of gerona, a soft winter coating which affords ample warmth for the entire season's wear; collared and cuffed with black fox or kit fox; frock top of georgette or crepe silk; black, brown or kit fox.

THIRD FLOOR

The Side Forward Movement Proves the Parisian Origin of

Velvet Afternoon Gowns $79.50

Flat across the back as the season requires, then gathering impetus at the left side and finally centering interest just a little off center with a wide godet and circular movement. This is the story, briefly told, of the velvet gown. Being a faithful copy of an import, it adds further details such as inserts of red Romaine crepe, flat bands of self trimming and cuffs flaring from elbow, lined with red. One of many velvet gowns, $59.50; up to $250

Lortay Corsets for 1922-1923

Fit a Model to Every Figure

Do you like a supple step-in of surgical elastic and broche—or a front lace style of satin with elastic girdle top—or one of suede cloth, lacing in the back and slightly higher at the top?
You will find all these styles and materials—and many more as well in the Lortay corsets for fall and winter. Every figure can be correctly fitted with a Lortay. Every gown will fit more smoothly over a Lortay.

Fur Coats

For Motoring

Slip into a fur coat, step into the motor, and you are off into the open country where October still lingers on the hillsides. There's warmth and a certain dash of smartness to be had in a natural muskrat coat with a raccoon collar that envelops the throat. Or for those who favor a shaggy, springy coat, there is the raccoon skin with bushy collars and cuffs also of 'coon Fur Coats for sports wear, be it playing football from the stands or exploring back roads with the motor. In furs for every temperament and complexion, including marmot, leopard cat, and the two lambs, grey and tan. At prices as appealing as the coats themselves.
